Note: The Office of Field Experiences will begin placing fall student teachers on February 1 and spring student teachers on September 15. Principals and cooperating teachers must be notified up front if a student is planning to student teach abroad for part of his/her student teaching placement. This is why we must know your intentions by the dates indicated.

Things to remember:

1. When you receive your placement, contact Dan Colleran collerad@uww.edu at the Center for Global Education about their online application that you'll need to complete prior to the groups' pre-departure meeting with him.
2. Check your university email regularly.
3. If you decide not to student teach abroad after turning in this form, please notify Dan Colleran & Cheryl Wegner.
